

Hector Ramos

Texas, USA

Hector has professional international experience in the area of Applied Creativity and Innovation. His area of expertise is the Osborn-Parnes' Creative Problem Solving (CPS) and Decision Making frameworks, including creative cognition in the areas of cognitive fixation and insight. He uses other creativity and innovation principles to help clients empathize and understand markets, trends and clients.

He is currently a Ph.D. candidate in Educational Psychology (Creativity, Intelligence and Giftedness) with focus on qualitative methods researching cognitive fixation in leaders from non-profit organizations. He also holds a Master of Science degree in Creative Studies and Change Leadership from the State University of New York, Buffalo College. Hector received the "International Center for Studies in Creativity Alumni Foundation Achievement Award".

Prior to his Ph.D. studies Hector trained, facilitated and coached individuals and groups from the Civil Service College and Singtel (Singapore), Citibank (Indonesia), a Banking Directors Group (Dubai, United Arab Emirates), business directors undergoing the Buffalo College Creativity Certification Program (Mexico), and Group Leadership Forum (Texas A&M University, USA). Hector speaks Spanish, French and Italian.