

Mastering Self-Leadership for the 21st Century: 'Activate' Yourself to Achieve Ultimate Self-empowerment and Self-engagement

Unleash your personal power, build your character strength and resilience, redefine your identity, clarify your purpose, and develop stronger and sustainable self-leadership.

Discover new possibilities for action, be able to communicate and influence others more effectively, be more productive, and achieve higher levels of performance and results.

Wednesday 10 May, 2017 (9:00am to 5:00pm)

Rydges North Sydney, 54 McLaren St, North Sydney, NSW 2060

The key to thrive and succeed in today's world is finding your primary purpose and identifying your unique talents, strengths and voice.

Learn How To

- Identify and apply your unique signature strengths, voice, and message.
- Experience higher levels of self-confidence, resilience and optimism.
- Boost your self-motivation, self-confidence, and perform better in all areas of your life.
- Accelerate your self-leadership by exercising greater visibility, influence and impact.
- Turn your ambitions into strategy, plans, actions and results.

Who Should Attend?

- Potential and upcoming leaders wanting to build a solid and sustainable self-leadership foundation.
- Anyone willing to activate, accelerate, strengthen, and deploy their unique strengths and significantly elevate their leadership impact.
- Those interested in further developing their character strength, resilience, optimism, self-confidence, self-motivation, and self-engagement.
- Anyone facing significant personal or professional challenges and wanting to develop greater self-empowerment.

Approach

This is a highly interactive, dynamic, hands-on workshop. It uses contemporary, scientific and pragmatic approaches that integrate positive psychology, coaching, adult learning principles, and action learning methods. This approach provides participants with the required knowledge, skills, capabilities and 'ways of being' required to challenge mediocrity and 'business-as-usual' mindsets, and establish new standards of performance to achieve their aspirations.

Includes

- Pre-workshop online assessment to identify your unique talents and strength.
- Written report with your signature themes.
- One 30 minute pre-workshop telephone feedback coaching session.
- Comprehensive workbook with resources and template.
- Lunch and refreshments.

 The online assessment and feedback session are a $350 value.*

 This program is also available for in-house workshops customised to your organisational needs.*

What people say about the presenters

Sebastian. You've made me a believer.

Thanks Sebastian, these skills I will take with me through the rest of my life.

Sebastian is a brilliant trainer and brings out the best in groups and individuals.

Sebastian consistently challenges clients by providing innovative alternatives to problems. His gift is to offer this in a collaborative manner that enables the client to arrive at their own solutions with powerful insights.

As the company I worked for started to "cross the chasm" it became apparent to all (including myself) that I might not make the transition from startup cowboy to reliable settler. Then Kenton was engaged to help me transform. A few months later and I'm more than happy to report that Kenton is an excellent coach and I have proven that the adage regarding old dogs and new...more.

I have utilised Kenton's services as a personal coach, mentor and business consultant on many occasions. I find him to be an excellent communicator, has an in-depth knowledge of topic and delivers tangible results on a personal and business level. I would strongly recommend him.
